The Story behind the Café

In 2005, a family member was diagnosed as gluten-intolerant. We lived and cooked under the same roof and I learned the struggles a gluten-intolerant person faces when dining at home, at restaurants and when visiting friends and families.

Newly aware of this issue, I started Lilit Café to make life easier for the gluten-intolerant and for their families by carrying Sweet Sin Bakery products. Over time, our gluten-free menu grew to a complete meal, not just baked goods. We even have gluten-free Beer and Cider. The menu continues to grow on a day-to-day basis; just ask about our specials.

Our staff are meticulous about preventing cross-contamination with gluten and wheat free meals. We cater to our wonderful gluten-free folk with a delicious variety of food. Your suggestions or feedback are most welcome.

Don't forget to have a look at our wide selection of gluten-free products.

Thank you and visit soon,
Davinder Singh
